

How to register your team(s) in the upcoming regional, ACM-ICPC Asia Kuala Lumpur Regional Contest?

Follow the simple steps as shown below.

If your institution is registered in the Baylor site <http://cm.baylor.edu/welcome.icpc> just follow the steps stated below. For Malaysian universities that has participated in any of the ACM ICPC Malaysia al-Khawarizmi contest before, will have its institution's name registered already. You can proceed to Step 1 immediately.

If your institution is new to ACM-ICPC, you first need to request to register your university. Please email to Dr. Normaziah, the Regional Contest Director for Malaysia at naa@iium.edu.my.

Step 1: Got to the site <http://cm.baylor.edu/welcome.icpc> choose the coach as shown below.

Step2: When the coach has clicked, the following page appears and now you can see a follow-up instruction that guides how to create a team. Just click here

Team creation

To create a new team, please click here.

- The link above shall help you to create a new account and/or log into your account. If you are not sure of whether you have an ICPC account, try the "Forgot password" link to email your password.
- If you are an existing user, the link above shall direct you to the team creation wizard after you log in. If you are a new user, complete the registration, log in, and click "Create team" to go to the team creation wizard.
- Team creation wizard
 - Select the site where you wish to compete.
 - Enter the requested information, including your team and university name. Search for your university in the search box. If you cannot find your institution in the list, please send an email request to manager@icpc.baylor.edu. Click the "Next" button when you are finished.
 - Review your team information and click the "Confirm" button.
 - Next you shall be presented with a list of your teams. Select the team you wish to manage (e.g., add team members,

Step3: After you clicked here, it will bring the following page where you need to select the contests. Choose from the list, Asia regional contest as follows.

The screenshot shows the ACM-ICPC website interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs for 'Teams', 'Contests', 'Search', and 'Contacts'. Below these, a breadcrumb trail indicates the current path: 'Site pick > Team > Confirmation'. A prominent heading reads '1. Select a contest and site'. A 'Help' link is provided. The main content area is divided into two sections. The first section, 'Select a site : these are the sites that may be close to your region; if not, select from the regions below', displays a tree view where 'The 2010 ACM-ICPC Asia Jakarta Regional Contest' is expanded to show 'Asia Jakarta On-Site Regional Contest' and 'Indonesia National On-Line Contest'. The second section, 'Select a site : all sites and contests', shows a tree view where 'World Finals of the ACM International Collegiate Programming Contest' is expanded to show regional contests: 'Africa and the Middle East Regional Contest', 'Asia Regional Contest', 'Europe Regional Contest', 'Latin America Regional Contest', 'North America Regional Contest', and 'South Pacific Regional Contest'. An arrow points to the 'Asia Regional Contest'.

And then it will bring all the Asia regional contests to be held, from the list look for ACM-ICPC Asia Kuala Lumpur Regional Contest and you will see the following contests under it.

The screenshot shows the ACM-ICPC website interface. The tree view is expanded to show 'ACM-ICPC Asia Kuala Lumpur Regional Contest' expanded to show 'Asia Kuala Lumpur On Site Regional Contest' and 'Malaysia al-Khwarizmi National Programming Contest 2010'. Other regional contests listed are 'ACM-ICPC Asia Kaohsiung Regional Contest', 'ACM-ICPC Asia Tehran Regional Contest', and 'ACM-ICPC Asia Tianjin Regional Contest'. An arrow points to the 'Asia Kuala Lumpur On Site Regional Contest'.

Step4: After choosing the right contest give your team name and search the institution or your university using the search criteria box as shown below and click the set. And also you can select the number of teams (how many teams) to participate in this coming competition.

The screenshot displays a web interface for team registration. At the top right, there is a header: "2. Name your team and choose your institutor". Below this, there is a "help" link and a "team info" section. The "team info" section contains the following details:

- Contest name: Asia Kuala Lumpur On Site Regional Contest (ACM-ICPC Asia Kuala Lumpur Regional Contest)
- Registration starts: Sep 30, 2010
- Advanced reg. date: Oct 31, 2010
- Registration end: Nov 5, 2010
- Contest starts: Dec 8, 2010

Below the team info, there are two input fields:

- Team name: A text input field with a red asterisk indicating it is mandatory.
- Teams to register: A dropdown menu currently set to "1" and a "Set" button.

At the bottom, there is an "institution search" section. It includes a "Help" link, a "Criteria:" label, a text input field containing "international islamic univer", and a "Search" button. Below the search criteria, there is a section titled "Institution/school search results (total: 2)" which lists two results:

Institution Name	Action
International Islamic University Chittagong	Set
International Islamic University Malaysia	Set

Two black arrows point from the text in Step 4 to the "Team name" input field and the "Search" button in the "institution search" section.

Step 5: Register the team member's names and their full details. Fill all the mandatory fields and all other required fields. Once the teams are registered each institute will have their own dashboard where you can manage your teams' information.

Step 6: It is important that you fill in the form completely together with the size of T-Shirt for your team(s). There will be no change of T-Shirt size during the contest day.

Should you have any queries, please email to icpc-kl@kict.iium.edu.my

We look forward to seeing you in this contest!
